

Master of Science (MS) Programme in Agricultural Economics

The programme offers MS degree in Agricultural Economics. The programme started in the academic year 1402/1403 H.

Programme Objectives:

1. Advancement of knowledge in Agricultural Economics
2. Preparing students to become highly qualified specialists to participate effectively in the development plans.
3. Emphasizing state – of the art training in scientific research related to labor market.
4. Investigating the main problems of agricultural sector and suggestion proper solutions.
5. Strengthening the relationship between the department and community.
6. Improving education and research capabilities in the area of agricultural economics.

Major Fields: Agricultural Economics.

Qualifications:

Prospective Students for the programme must have BS in Agricultural Economics or it's equivalent. Students obtaining a different degree of BS in Agricultural Science are eligible for admission, However additional courses assigned by the department counsel must be taken.

Curriculum and Courses:

35 credit hours and thesis